

Love Creek, MI – Day Trip

Saturday Feb. 8th, 2003 Barb Pacuk, Rita Butler, Chris Bracht and her friend Jan drove over for a fine day of skiing. What was unfortunate for a whole slew of drivers on Friday afternoon, suited us just fine on Saturday. The temps moderated to the mid-20's with a bit of a breeze. In the shelter of the woods it was comfortable. The trails were in pretty good shape. Skating and striding both! Met up with Terry Leuders whose training partners had deserted him for some place called 'Tahoe'. Love Creek has a wonderful new 'chalet' and it deserves to be called such. They have a beautiful facility that includes spacious bathrooms, refrigerator and microwave. Snacks are available for purchase as well as beverages. It is only a 2 hour drive if the roads are clear and well worth the time to get there. Check out our website for a link to their site for conditions.
